An Exit133 Top Pick

18 years ago Frank (Billy Burke) murdered his alcoholic and abusive father. Today he darkens the door of his high school sweetheart Karen (Sherry Stringfield) under the guise of reigniting a flame long extinguished.

Inculcated by a conniving televangelist, Frank's seeks vengeance upon Karen for aborting his baby. Through his job as an armored car guard, Frank plots to set Karen up for a heist and sentence her to a life of misery. Payback really is a bitch.

A must see for festival goers, Billy Burke delivers an amazing performance as Frank.
